Wasn't kindergarten awesome? Hide and seek during recess, frozen grapes at snack time, and the thing that everybody forgets to mention: nap time. Yeah, of course I hated it back then, but I'd kill for nap time right now. Very underrated. But besides all that, the very best thing about kindergarten? My first crush: Billy Farmington. Yup. I was one of those "fast" girls mom warned you about. But it was totally innocent! I swear. We only played "doctor" like once. Anyway, I brought a buncha pixie sticks to school one day. He poured like ten of them in his mouth at once. We were pretty much inseparable after that. Until second grade. Kim Forrester brought him a buncha X-men comics. That slut...
